The War Committee, chosen at a Town meeting legally called, within less than one month after the breaking out of the War of the great rebellion, consisted originally, according to the resolution under which they were chosen of five members, to continue in office until discharged by the town, viz: Mr. Reuben Ramsdell, who after two years resigned, Allison Lake, Esq., and John P. Symonds Esq., who have deceased, and the subscribers. The principal business of the Committee has been disbursing State Aid, and collect it again from the State, which, with other duties of the Committee, the subscribers have endeavored to perform, under their oath of office, in a faithful manner.

The Committee have made annual reports to the Town, and now the occasion for which they were chosen, having happily ceased to exist, we respectfully request the town to discharge us from the obligations thereof.
